..be first in line for London 2012 tickets

As a school involved in the Tony Blair sports programme Inspire Project, you could be first in line for London 2012 tickets!

In recognition of their commitment to the Olympic and Paralympic Values London 2012 Ticketshare offers schools and colleges in the Get Set network tickets to the Olympic and Paralympic Games at no cost! You must be a member of the Get Set network to get tickets through the London 2012 Ticketshare initiative and the deadline for applications is Friday 16 December 2011.

All you have to do is tell London 2012 about your involvement in the Tony Blair Sports Foundation [Insert name of competition or work here] and how your school is living the Olympic and Paralympic Values.

It's that simple! What are you waiting for? Complete the form now at www.getset.london2012.com/en/login

And if this news about London 2012 Ticketshare isn't enough of an incentive, there are lots of other benefits of joining the network too.

Members of the Get Set network receive:

- A plaque and certificate from Lord Coe
- The London 2012 education logo for use on your school sign, letterhead and website
- Access to exclusive opportunities such as tours of the Olympic Park and visits from athletes and mascots

You may already be registered with Get Set, however if you haven't received a Get Set plaque yet then you're not in the network. Don't forget the deadline for applications is Friday 16 December 2011.
